1. Purpose

- 1.1 The purpose of this policy is to define the eligibility for Members and Subscribers of the Association, the membership and subscription categories with corresponding benefits, services and fees.
- 1.2 This policy is to be read in conjunction with the following policies of the Association:
- (a) Code of Conduct
 - (b) Accreditation Policy
 - (c) ASMP Policy

2. Definitions

- 2.1 In this policy, unless the context otherwise requires:

Association means the Zoo and Aquarium Association Inc. (ABN 71 836 556 156).

ASMP means Australasian Species Management Program.

Australasian region is described as New Zealand, Australia, Papua New Guinea and South Pacific Islands.

Benefits means the privileges received by the paying Member. All membership benefits are extended to the Member and to the staff who directly provide services to that Member.

Board means the board of management of the Association.

Code of Conduct means the Code of Conduct setting out the standards of ethical and professional practice and conduct for Applicable Persons.

Committee means a committee of the Board established in accordance with clause 42 of the Constitution.

Constitution means the Constitution of the Association, as amended from time to time.

Executive Director means the Executive Director of the Association.

Member means a member of the Association, as defined in the Association Members Policy, and may include an employee, officer or agent of a Member of the Association. Only one business/trading name can be listed per membership.

Operating Expenses (OPEX) are taken to include all costs of operating and maintaining the institution, including costs associated with the administration, staffing, maintaining and marketing the institution, but excluding expenses associated with capital works (e.g. new exhibits), depreciation and debt servicing. Also excluded are ancillary activities including retail and catering operations, entertainment that is not wildlife-based (e.g. amusement park rides), and sponsorships/grants tied to activities outside the core business of the institution (e.g. research grants, etc.).

Organisation means an unincorporated entity or an entity incorporated under national, State or Territory legislation.

Regional Member subcategories – the following subcategories based on the composition of species held and the number of annual admissions are applied to Regional Members for the purpose of calculating membership fees based on OPEX.

Native: Member holds 100% native species of their own country.

Aquatic: Aquarium or predominantly aquatic species.

Small Exotic: Member has less than 100K Admissions; and holds less than 15 exotic (non-native) ASMP Programs.

Large Exotic: Member holds 16 or greater exotic (non-native) ASMP Programs.

Subscriber means a subscriber of the Association, as defined by the Association's Subscriber and Members Policy.

ZAA means the Zoo and Aquarium Association Inc. (ABN 71 836 556 156).

3. Membership Year

The Association membership year is 1 January to 31 December.

4. Approval

Please note that the Board reserves the right to exercise discretion over eligibility for Subscribers and Members and may make exceptions to this policy where deemed to be in the overall best interests of the Association.

5. Voting

In accordance with the Zoo and Aquarium Association Constitution, only Regional and Individual Members have the right to vote at general meetings. International Members, Subscribers and Business Members do not have voting rights.

6. Eligibility for Subscribers¹

The Subscribers categories support those organisations, individuals and other industry representatives who wish to have a professional association with the Zoo and Aquarium Association, Australasia. These fall into the following groups:

- (a) Organisations that are not defined as zoos, aquariums or wildlife parks, are defined under the Business Category of the Association membership structure (see membership section for details) and can demonstrate relevance to zoos and aquariums. Typically, this will suit organisations such as those listed below:
 - (i) Government departments (non-animal holding), libraries, other relevant associations*;

¹ Please review Section 8 for a complete list of eligibility criteria for each subscriber category.

- (ii) Tertiary and other training providers;
- (iii) Corporate businesses/sponsors;
- (iv) Mobile exhibitors/wildlife presenters* (does not include circuses, entertainers, or retail shops).

* Relevancy is determined by the Zoo and Aquarium Association Board.

(b) Zoos, aquariums or wildlife parks residing inside the Australasian region that are seeking a professional relationship with the Association.

- (i) An Australasian based zoo or aquarium wishing to become a new member of the Association; or
- (ii) An Australasian based zoo or aquarium that is reapplying for membership after a membership has lapsed.

(c) Zoos, aquariums or wildlife parks residing outside the Australasian region that are seeking a professional relationship with the Association.

- (i) Non-Australasian based zoos or aquariums that are already a member of their own regional zoo and aquarium association, wishing to become a new member of the Association; or
- (ii) Non-Australasian based zoos or aquariums that are already a member of their own regional zoo and aquarium association that is reapplying for membership after a membership has lapsed.

(d) Individuals seeking a professional association:

- (i) Individuals employed by a Member zoo / aquarium wishing to become a new member; or
- (ii) Who participate with an Association advisory group or committee; or
- (iii) After leaving employment with a member organisation; or an
- (iv) An individual who has relevance* to zoos / aquariums either within the Australasian region or International

* Relevancy is determined by the Zoo and Aquarium Association Board.

7. Eligibility for Members

7.1 Regional Eligibility

Regional Membership to the Association is restricted to those organisations residing in the Australasian region, described as New Zealand, Australia, Papua New Guinea and South Pacific Islands.

7.2 International Eligibility

Organisations outside of the Australasian region who wish to have a relationship with the Association should refer to the International Membership section (8.0) of this policy for options.

7.3 Individual Members

The Zoo and Aquarium Association describes eligible Individual Members as those who work for a Regional Member that meets the eligibility criteria listed below for Regional Members, or who participate in an Association specialist advisory group or on an Association Committee.

7.4 Regional Members

(a) The Zoo and Aquarium Association describes eligible Regional Members as those who:

- (i) Hold wildlife for the purposes of conservation education, presentation and breeding, operate primarily from a fixed site and are open to the community or are a specialist wildlife breeding centre;
- (ii) Holds a current operator's licence/relevant permit, issued by the relevant government jurisdiction for the exhibition or keeping of animals/wildlife;
- (iii) Must commit to advising the Association's Executive Director within 14 days of any change in licencing/regulation/permit status (temporary or permanent), including notice of requirement to make changes in order to meet on-going compliance;
- (iv) Must be currently Accredited by the Association's Accreditation Program.
- (v) Be prepared to consider free entry to Individual Members;
- (vi) Understand that any Australasian Species Management Program (ASMP) species held prior to membership will require a commitment to join and participate in the relevant ASMP Programs once membership is approved.

7.5 Material changes to operation, location or staffing

(a) Changes within the context of an existing licence to operate

In the event that a member organisation is subject to a change in ownership (but retains existing staffing and operational structure) or location (within the current jurisdiction) the Association will maintain the existing membership, with the following requirements:

- (i) Change of ownership – requires a letter from both the outgoing owner advising of such and the incoming owner signing off on the Association's Code of Conduct. The new owner will need to undertake and complete an interim desktop accreditation review within six (6) months of confirmation of new ownership.
- (ii) Change of location – requires a resubmission of the relevant Statutory Authority issued licence that reflects the new trading address.

(b) Transition between different operating authorities

In the event that a member organisation is subject to a change in licencing requirements (i.e. material change in scope of operations, change in jurisdiction or seeks to replace a significant proportion of the staff) the Association will require a new application which will be subject to the application criteria and associated fees.

- (i) Any decision for which this consideration applies will be managed by the Executive Director and may be referred to the Association's Board for a decision.
- (ii) In the event that a Member is required to re-apply for membership under 7.4 (b) above they will be required to re-join at a Subscriber level. An additional fee may be charged where existing collection animals are part of the ASMP.
